Hassia USA

Hassia USA provides sales, service and support to the North American marketplace offering packaging machines tailored for high performance and seamless integration. Hassia offers thermoform, sachet, pouch, and aseptic packaging machinery for the food and confectionery, chemical, and pharmaceutical industries. Through A+F Automation, its sister IWKA Group company, Hassia also offers end-of-the-line case packers, palletizers, tray erectors, robotics, and transport systems for fully-integrated secondary packaging applications for virtually any type of product. Hassia USA is headquartered at 1210 Campus Drive West, Morganville, New Jersey. For more information on Hassia's complete line of form, fill, seal, and end-of-line packaging systems, call 732-536-8770 or visit the Hassia Web site at www.hassiausa.com.
